

In Regards to changing Telephone Privacy Laws. The state of Indiana has done a wonderful job of protecting my rights to privacy and I do not feel the federal goverment needs to lessen this law. The amount of bothersome calss I have recieved has dropped from about 20 a month to almost none. I really appreciate this lack of calls from parties I am not interested in hearing from. Please leave the Indiana law alone and let the states determine what is best for there people.